1. Because you are under arrest, or are being detained while on DUI probation, and I believe you are under the influence of alcohol, or a combination of alcohol and drugs, you are required by law to submit to and complete a chemical test to determine the alcohol and/or drug content of your blood.
2. You have a choice of taking a breath or blood test. If you are on DUI probation, you are required to take a Preliminary Alcohol Screening Test.
3. Urine Test Consent: (Read only when applicable.)
   a. Because the breath and blood tests are unavailable; or you are incapable of completing a breath or blood test; or you are afflicted with hemophilia or are using an anticoagulant medication, you are deemed to have given your consent to chemical testing of your urine.
4. One or More Test(s) Unavailable: (Read only when applicable.)
   a. Your choice of test is limited to the (check all that apply) ☒ blood ☐ breath ☐ urine test(s) because the (check all that apply) ☒ blood ☐ breath ☐ PAS (DUI probation) test or tests are unavailable.
   b. The test or tests are unavailable because (check all that apply) ☐ you were unable to or stated you were unable to complete the test(s).
      ☐ You require medical treatment and your choice is limited to the test available at the medical facility. ☐ The equipment is not available or not functioning.
      ☐ Other: _____
5. If you cannot, or state you cannot, complete the test you choose, you must submit to and complete a remaining test.
6. If you refuse to submit to, or fail to complete, a chemical test your driving privilege will be administratively suspended for one year or revoked for two or three years by the Department of Motor Vehicles.
7. If your refusal or failure to complete a test occurs within ten years of a separate violation of driving under the influence, including a charge reduced to reckless driving, or vehicular manslaughter, or a violation of California Vehicle Code section 23140, which resulted in a conviction; or your driving privilege has been suspended or revoked pursuant to California Vehicle Code sections 13353, 13353.1, or 13353.2 for an offense that occurred on a separate occasion, your driving privilege will be administratively revoked for two years.
8. Three or more offenses within ten years of any combination of the above violations, convictions, or separate administrative determinations will result in your driving privilege being administratively revoked for three years.
9. Refusal or failure to complete a chemical test may be used against you in court.
10. Refusal or failure to complete a breath test or a urine test, if applicable, will result in a fine and mandatory imprisonment if you are convicted of a violation of California Vehicle Code sections 23152 or 23153.
11. You do not have the right to talk to an attorney or have an attorney present before stating whether you will submit to a test, before deciding which test to take, or during the test.

DRUG ADMONITION

If the driver has not attempted or completed a Chemical Breath test and a Chemical Breath test is available, you must offer the driver the option of a Chemical Breath test. Even if the driver has already submitted to a PAS test or you do not suspect alcohol use.

A driver who has submitted to a Chemical Breath test may additionally be required to submit to a Blood test if you have reasonable cause to believe that the driver was driving under the influence of a drug or the combined influence of alcohol and a drug and you have reasonable cause to believe that a blood test will reveal evidence of the driver being under the influence.

The driver was admonished on date: ____/____/____ at _____ ☐ AM ☐ PM

1. Because you are under arrest, or are being detained while on DUI probation, and I believe you are under the influence of alcohol or a combination of alcohol and drugs, you are required by law to submit to a blood, breath, or a urine test. A urine test is only available if you are afflicted with hemophilia or are using an anticoagulant medication.
2. You may choose to submit to a breath test to determine the alcohol content of your blood. However, because I believe you are under the influence of drugs or combination of drugs and alcohol, you are additionally required to submit to a blood or urine test, if applicable. If you have already submitted to, refused, or failed to complete a breath test or a breath test is unavailable you are required to complete a blood test or a urine test, if applicable.
3. Urine Test Consent: (Read only when applicable)
   a. Because the breath and blood tests are unavailable; or you are incapable of completing a breath or blood test; or you are afflicted with hemophilia or are using an anticoagulant medication, you are deemed to have given your consent to chemical testing of your urine.
4. One or More Test(s) Unavailable: (Read only when applicable)
   a. Your choice of test is limited to the (check all that apply) ☐ blood ☐ breath ☐ urine test(s) because the (check all that apply) ☐ blood ☐ breath ☐ PAS (DUI probation) test or tests are unavailable.
   b. The test or tests are unavailable because (check all that apply) ☐ you were unable to or stated you were unable to complete the test(s).
      ☐ You require medical treatment and your choice is limited to the test available at the medical facility. ☐ The equipment is not available or not functioning.
      ☐ Other: _____
5. If you cannot, or state you cannot, complete the test you choose, you must submit to and complete a remaining test.
6. If you refuse to submit to, or fail to, complete a chemical test your driving privilege will be administratively suspended for one year or revoked for two or three years by the Department of Motor Vehicles.
7. If your refusal or failure to complete a test occurs within ten years of a separate violation of driving under the influence, including a charge reduced to reckless driving, vehicular manslaughter, or a violation of California Vehicle Code section 23140, which resulted in a conviction; or your driving privilege has been suspended or revoked pursuant to California Vehicle Code sections 13353, 13353.1, or 13353.2 for an offense that occurred on a separate occasion, your driving privilege will be administratively revoked for two years.
8. Three or more offenses within ten years of any combination of the above violations, convictions, or separate administrative determinations will result in your driving privilege being administratively revoked for three years.
9. Refusal or failure to complete a chemical test may be used against you in court.
10. Refusal or failure to complete breath or urine, if applicable, testing will result in a fine and mandatory imprisonment if you are convicted of a violation of California Vehicle Code sections 23152 or 23153.

TEMPORARY DRIVER LICENSE

This document must be carried with you and shall serve as your temporary California driver license. It is subject to the same class(es) and all restrictions as your permanent driver license. This temporary driver license does not provide you with any driving privileges if you do not have a California driver license or your license is expired, suspended, revoked, canceled, or denied. It expires at midnight 30 days from the issue date of this order shown below.

AUTHORITY AND VIOLATION

This action is taken under authority of California Vehicle Code §§ 13353, 13353.1, 13353.2 and 13389 because you were arrested or detained for driving under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs and:

BAC 0.01% PAS, Breath, Blood or Urine Test while on DUI Probation	You completed a PAS, breath, blood, or urine test and the officer believes the results will show 0.01% BAC or more. If the laboratory results show your BAC was less than 0.01%, this suspension will be set aside. Your driver license will be reissued to you if you do not have another suspension or revocation in effect.
BAC 0.08% Breath, Blood, or Urine Test	You completed a breath test with 0.08% BAC or more, or you completed a blood or urine test and the officer believes the results will show 0.08% BAC or more. If the laboratory results show that your BAC is less than 0.08%, this suspension or revocation will be set aside. Your driver license will be reissued to you if you do not have another suspension or revocation in effect.
BAC 0.04 % Breath, Blood or Urine Test while driving a Commercial Vehicle	You completed a breath test with 0.04% BAC or more, or you completed a blood or urine test and the officer believes the results will show 0.04% BAC or more. If the laboratory results show that your BAC is less than 0.04%, this suspension or revocation will be set aside. Your driver license will be reissued to you if you do not have another suspension or revocation in effect.
Chemical Test Refusal	You refused to submit to, or failed to, complete a chemical test of the alcohol and/or drug content of your blood.

HEARING INFORMATION

You have 10 days from the receipt of this notice to request a hearing. Failure to request a hearing within 10 days is a waiver of the right to a hearing and the department may take action without a hearing. The suspension or revocation will not be stayed (delayed) unless you request a hearing within 10 days from the issue date of this order and the DMV cannot provide a hearing and make a determination before the effective date of the suspension or revocation.

Hearings are conducted only to determine the hearing issues described below. Your need for a license cannot be considered at a hearing. The hearing officer is a neutral fact finder and does not represent the DMV or law enforcement. If you want a hearing or have questions regarding this matter, contact the DMV at dmv.ca.gov/driversafety or call (833) 543-7703.

Before the hearing, you may obtain copies of the evidence in the department's possession. You must request copies of the evidence at least 10 days prior to the date set for commencement of the hearing. If you want the information released to someone else, give them signed permission. You have the right to have a sign or language interpreter present at your hearing. If you require the service of an interpreter, notify the DMV immediately. A remote hearing will be conducted unless you request an in-person hearing.

During the hearing, you may present oral testimony and/or other evidence. Testimony is taken under oath. The hearing will be recorded. You may be represented by legal counsel or you may represent yourself. You have the right to subpoena the arresting officer(s) or other witnesses. You have the right to cross-examine any other witnesses. Blank subpoenas may be obtained at dmv.ca.gov/dssubpoena or provided to you by the hearing officer upon request prior to the hearing. You are responsible for service of your subpoena(s) and any witness fee required by law. After the hearing, the hearing officer shall make findings and render a decision.

I certify under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the State of California, that the information contained on all pages of this Officer's Statement is true and correct.

- Did the peace officer have reasonable cause to believe you were driving a motor vehicle in violation of California Vehicle Code §§ 23152, 23153, or 23154?
- Were you lawfully detained while on DUI probation or lawfully arrested?
- Were you driving a motor vehicle when you had: 0.01% BAC or more by weight of alcohol while on DUI probation; 0.04% BAC or more by weight of alcohol while driving a commercial vehicle; or 0.08% BAC or more by weight of alcohol?

Refusal to submit to or failure to complete a chemical test.

- Did the peace officer have reasonable cause to believe you were driving a motor vehicle in violation of California Vehicle Code §§ 23152, 23153, or 23154?
- Were you lawfully detained while on DUI probation or lawfully arrested?
- Were you told that your driving privilege would be suspended or revoked for one, two, or three years if you refused to submit to, or failed to complete a chemical test?
- Did you refuse or fail to complete a chemical test, or PAS test (while on DUI Probation), after being requested to do so by a peace officer?

APPEAL RIGHTS

Following the hearing decision, you may request a department review in writing within 15 days from the date on the bottom of the notice telling you the results of your hearing. The fee for the department review is $120. You may also appeal a DMV decision by filing a writ of mandamus at the superior court in your county of residence within 30 days from the date on the bottom of the notice telling you the results of your hearing.

PENALTIES

Chemical test results of 0.01% or more BAC while on DUI probation; 0.04% or more BAC in a commercial motor vehicle; or 0.08% or more BAC. (California Vehicle Code §§ 13353.2 and 13353.3)

- First Offense of driving with a BAC of 0.08% or more or 0.04% or more BAC in a commercial motor vehicle will result in a 4-month suspension, or a 1-year suspension if 0.01% or more BAC while on DUI probation.
- Second or Subsequent Offense within 10 years of a separate violation of driving under the influence, including such a charge reduced to reckless driving, or vehicular manslaughter, or violation of California Vehicle Code § 23140, which resulted in a conviction, or separate administrative determination that you were driving with a BAC of 0.01% or more while on DUI probation, or a BAC of 0.08% or more or a BAC of 0.04% or more in a commercial motor vehicle at any age, or you refused a test, will result in a 1-year suspension.

Refusal to submit to or failure to complete a chemical test or a preliminary alcohol screening. (California Vehicle Code §§ 13353 and 13353.1)

- First Offense will result in a 1-year suspension, or a 2-year revocation if on DUI probation.
- Second Offense within 10 years of a separate violation of driving under the influence, including such a charge reduced to reckless driving, or vehicular manslaughter, or a violation of California Vehicle Code § 23140, which resulted in a conviction, or separate administrative determination that you were driving with a BAC of 0.01% or more while on DUI probation, or a BAC of 0.08% or more or a BAC of 0.04% or more in a commercial vehicle at any age, or you refused a test, will result in a 2-year revocation, or a 3-year revocation while on DUI probation.
- Three or More Offenses within 10 years of any combination of the above violations, convictions or separate administrative determinations will result in a 3-year revocation.

Commercial Disqualification: A commercial license disqualification action will be taken due to any of the following: if you refused a chemical test, if you had a 0.04% BAC or more while operating a commercial motor vehicle, as defined in California Vehicle Code § 15210 or while transporting hazardous materials, or if you held a commercial driver license and were driving any vehicle when you had a 0.08% BAC or more.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

An administrative review will be conducted automatically. You will be notified in writing only if the suspension or revocation is set aside. Before the suspension or revocation can be ended and a driver license issued or returned to you, a $125 reissue fee must be paid to DMV (California Vehicle Code § 14905), and you must file proof of financial responsibility by a California Insurance Proof Certificate (SR 22/1P), a cash deposit or surety bond for the amounts required pursuant to California Vehicle Code § 16056, or self-insurer certificate pursuant to California Vehicle Code § 16052. You must maintain proof of financial responsibility for three years. If you drive while your driving privilege is suspended or revoked, you may be arrested and, if convicted, jailed and/or fined and your vehicle may be impounded or sold.
